

Kuno Gonschior

Painting. 1966 to 2009

March 4th - May 13th 2017

Galerie m is featuring from 4 March to 13 May 2017 paintings by the Bochum-based painter Kuno Gonschior (1935 Wanne-Eickel – 2010 Bochum). Gonschior's first solo show at the gallery took place back in 1971, when his experimental approach to painting was making an important contribution to concrete art. The current exhibition provides an overview of the artist's lifelong engagement with color and paint, reflecting the broad scope of his work – with formats ranging from a minimalist 15 cm up to a monumental 250 cm, an extensive spectrum of colors, and a distinctive painting style.

